

The speed of the pour is controlled by the angle of the bottle. Too much angle will cause wine to slow or stop. Stay within the angle shown for an ideal, controlled pour.